

PREPAREDNESS PLAN FOR VOLUNTEERS PARTICIPATING IN ACTIVITIES WITH CHILDREN

CRISIS! WHAT DO I DO?

Save the Children

INJURIES AND ACCIDENTS THAT OCCUR DURING THE ACTIVITY

- 1 Keep calm.
- 2 The first person on the scene:
Assess whether the injury can be tended to onsite.
Assess whether there is a need for medical assistance.
Provide first aid if necessary.
Ensure that other volunteers are alerted.
- 3 Get someone to call an ambulance at 113:
State your name, place, what has happened.
Have the information you provided confirmed.
- 4 Volunteers not providing first aid are to remove the other children from the accident site and keep them calm.
- 5 Alert the person or persons responsible for the child about what has happened and what is being done.

INJURIES AND ACCIDENTS THAT OCCUR DURING THE ACTIVITY

- 6 Meet the ambulance.
- 7 A volunteer will go with the ambulance, if possible, another volunteer should be at the hospital:
Bring a mobile phone.
Stay with the child until the person or persons responsible for the child arrive. Be aware that parents may act angry towards you when they arrive.
- 8 Make sure that the other children return safely.
- 9 Gather the children and parents (if possible) and talk about what has happened:
Ask staff from the crisis centre/reception centre to be present.
It is important to give a correct and concrete account of the situation.

NB! APPLIES TO ALL INCIDENTS:

Notify your contact person in Save the Children and scan the QR-code to fill out the deviation form. Afterwards you will get the opportunity to have a debrief with your contact person or talk to a psychologist if needed.

IF THERE IS A PHYSICAL CONFLICT BETWEEN CHILDREN

In volunteer work with children, we must provide a safe environment for the activities and act in a way that reduces conflict and respects the children. If there is a physical conflict between children, it is important that you assess the situation and act according to the degree of seriousness.

- 1 Remain calm.
- 2 Address the children involved in a calm and clear manner.

IF A CHILD CONFIDES IN YOU

Notify the regional office immediately.

Make sure that the child receives medical help if needed. You are responsible for the child's wellbeing until someone else takes over.

NB! It is your responsibility to listen, but you should not investigate or contact the accused person.

Information on whistleblowing on the following page.

You will get the opportunity to have a debrief with your contact person in Save the Children or talk to a psychologist if needed.

WHISTLEBLOWING

Everyone should feel safe when they are with Save the Children. We work to ensure that all our activities and events are safe and secure for both children and adults. If something unwanted happens or you suspect that our guidelines have been breached, you should let us know as soon as possible. Doing so, you give us the opportunity to sort things out and offer help to those that need it.

You make a report by talking to your contact person from the regional office or by using our electronic reporting form by scanning the QR-code.

NB! The reporting form is only checked during workhours.
